

OUR 7th SEASON

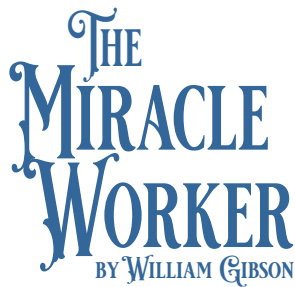

March 18, 19, 20, 21, 2021

Life, history, and art, mix in this Tony Award Winning script by Peter Shaffer. The fantasy, based on an Alexander Pushkin poem, suggests Court Composer Salieri had something to do with the younger, more brilliant composer, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's untimely death. Raymond Kester steps off THE ALLEY stage to direct this masterpiece in the beautiful setting of THE ANDERSON MUSEUM OF ART.

June 10, 11, 12, 13, 2021

Opening in 1941, this Noël Coward comedy was an instant hit. As a novelist seeks to gather material for his next novel, by visiting the local, eccentric, clairvoyant and attending a seance, everything backfires as the ghost of his first wife soon begins to haunt him. Tommy Thomas makes his ALLEY THEATRE debut directing what is sure to be a group of comedic geniuses in this hilarious play certain to warm you up in cold January!

August 12, 13, 14, 15, 2021

William Gibson's moving script tells the true story of the blind, deaf, and mute young girl, Helen Keller, and the "miracle" experience when she and her governess/teacher, Annie Sullivan, connected. Originally a "Playhouse 90 Teleplay" the three-act stage play premiered in 1959 with stars Anne Bancroft (Sullivan) and Patty Duke (Keller). Rhonda Tinch-Mize, no stranger to THE ALLEY, directs this wonderful story.
